Paris Boy Arrested on Serious Charge.

The Cincinnati Enquirer of Friday contained the following:
"Edward Davis, of Paris, Ky., who says he is but 16 years of age, was arrested in his room at 19 East Ninth avenue yesterday by Detectives Pfug and Hueftlein on suspicion of being a pickpocket who has been working the five and ten cent stores on Fifth avenue recently. It is claimed that Pfug and Hueftlein arrested him about eighteen months ago while he was in the company of a number of clever pickpockets. At that time he gave his age as 17 years. He has been in the city but a short time and says he has been making his living singing at nickel shows."

Davis formerly sang at the Comet Theatre in this city and later went to Louisville where he was engaged in the same capacity at a moving picture theatre.

The Beautiful Delsarte Entertainment.

The Delsarte entertainment to be given at the Grand Opera House on Wednesday evening, December 13, for the benefit of the M. E. church will be one of the most delightful entertainments ever given in Paris.

The Bowling Green Daily News says: "Mrs. Reid's entertainment was decidedly the best ever given in Bowling Green." The same program will be given here by the young people of Paris. Mrs. A. D. Reid, who is managing this entertainment, is widely known among the church people of Central Kentucky, and her success has been marvelous. Rev. A. D. Reid, her husband, a former minister in the Christian church, received his theological training in the Bible College of Transylvania University and spent some years in the ministry in Jeffersonville, Ind., where he was stricken with a malarial attack that left him a confirmed invalid as he has been for many years. Mrs. Reid has had the responsibility of rearing the family and has raised three splendid sons who are giving a good account of themselves. One is in a band at Flemmingsburg, one is teaching in the Franklin county High School, and the other is attending the Eastern Kentucky Normal School at Richmond. The Delsarte entertainment at the Grand Opera House on Wednesday, December 13, is an unusually high class performance and the cause is a deserving one.

The Lexington Leader says: "Mrs. Reid's entertainment was pronounced one of the most enjoyable affairs of its kind ever presented on a Lexington stage." Don't miss it here.

We will begin receiving turkeys for Christmas on Wednesday, Dec. 6.

THEATRICAL.

"THE ISLE OF SMILES."

Rarely does a musical play contain as many conspicuous ensemble and elaborately staged song numbers as does this, the big New York musical comedy success, "The Isle of Smiles," which plays at the Paris Grand with an all star cast of principals and a chorus that has captivated all cities that this big success has visited. It costs a good deal of money, to say nothing of the pains and inventive ingenuity to make a musical comedy complete, and that is why one or two novel effects are compelled to counterbalance numerous solos and duets with the average musical show, but not so with "The Isle of Smiles" which contains no less than a dozen elaborately staged numbers to say little about the individual vocal hits.

Included in the musical hits are "Bessie Brown," "Send Me a Souvenir Post Card," "The Red, Red Rose," "Moon Song," "The Mysterious Rag," "The Highland Queen," "Maybe it's a Rober," "Take Your Hands Away," "The Laughing Song," "The Hives," "Ma Honey, Man." All these numbers are beautifully costumed, in fact, there has been nothing left undone to make "The Isle of Smiles" among the best of the season's attractions.

The entire show is one big song revue, adequately cast and costumed, and will be the one big musical comedy hit of the season. The date of the engagement is Friday, December 8. Prices 25 cents, 35 cents, 50 cents and $1. Please reserve your seats at Mitchell & Blakemore's. Seats on sale Wednesday.

Bloodine

We Know
-BLOODINE-
Will Help You
To Regain Your Strength and Energy.

Report of the Head Physician to a Leading New York Hospital on the Cure of Catarrh.

"A few years ago we considered that we were doing well if we cured ten per cent. of the cases of catarrh brought to us, but since the introduction of 'Bloodine' into our hospital we cure more than 90 per cent. of all the cases of Catarrh in its various forms brought to us. Catarrh of the Head, Catarrh of the Eyes, Catarrh of the Bladder and Urethra, Catarrh of the large intestines, Catarrh of the Larynx, Pelvic Catarrh, Catarrh of the Throat, and Catarrh of the Stomach are quickly cured with 'Bloodine.' It builds new tissues, gives new energy, new life, new blood and strength to any part of the body attacked by the Catarrhal germs."

Bloodine is a powerful tonic, nourishing food medicine, composed of valuable tonic stimulants obtained from vegetable drugs. 'Bloodine' contains no narcotics or other dangerous drugs which merely deaden pain temporarily, but give no permanent relief or cure the cause of your disease. 'Bloodine' is a powerful body builder and blood maker; it is the best remedy known to the medical profession to enrich thin, watery blood and supply new, rich red blood to the whole body.

FREE - To prove the wonderful merits of BLOODINE we will mail a large sample bottle for 10 cents in silver or stamps for postage.

Saved Child From Death.

"After our child had suffered from severe bronchial trouble for a year," wrote G. T. Richardson, of Richardson's Mills, Ala., "we feared it had come the time. We tried many remedies without avail, and doctors' medicines seemed as useless. Finally we tried Dr. King's New Discovery, and we are pleased to say that one bottle effected a complete cure, and he is again strong and healthy." For coughs, colds, hoarseness, lagrippe, asthma, croup and sore lungs it's the most infallible remedy that's made. Price 50c and $1. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Oberdorfer.

Is the World Growing Better?

Many things go to prove that it is. The way thousands are tending to help others is proof. Among them is Mrs. W. W. Gould, of Pittsfield, N. H. Finding good health by taking Electric Bitters she now advises other sufferers everywhere to take them. "For years I suffered with stomach and kidney trouble," she writes. "Every medicine I used failed till I took Electric Bitters. But this great remedy helped me wonderfully." They'll help any woman. They are the best tonic and liver and kidney remedy that's made. PAYABLE IN ADVANCE

How Long?

How long must the people continue to pay express companies a profit of 40 per cent a year on money that is not invested in the express business, and that exists in blue air only. This is a question that the people desire answered, and one that they are beginning to become impatient about, judging from the ever increasing number of communications on this subject that are being received by members of Congress.

"Express companies ought to be permitted to make a good liberal rate of interest on money actually invested," writes an Iowa man to his Congressman. "The thing that arouses our disgust is that the government permits the express companies to extort a profit of from 25 to 50 per cent on a capitalization that is two thirds water. I would like to see a parcels post. If we cannot have a complete system why can't we at least have a limited parcels post to start with, effective only between towns and cities and the surrounding country. Such a limited system would help rather than injure the business of the retailers. Think it over."

The Interstate Commerce Commission's report shows that the net income from the express companies' operation is $11,000,000, and on their own valuation of $27,000,000, their profit is shown to be approximately 40 per cent. It is known that the actual value of the express companies' equipment is less than one-half of what they allege, so that their profit on money actually invested runs up to nearly 100 per cent.

To Prevent Wastefulness.

Democratic leaders in the House of Representatives are planning to give a great deal of attention during this session of Congress to the appropriation bills. It is by demonstrating their ability to spend Uncle Sam's money wisely that the Democrats hope to establish their claim for greater recognition next year, and if there is one thing upon which there is no division of opinion among the House majority leaders, it is the determination to make the coming session memorable for its businesslike administration of the vast government machinery.

That the Republican cabinet members realize that there will be no chance for unmerited expenditures is indicated by the fact that the greatest care is being given to the preparation of estimates. The interior department will ask for a million and a half less than was called for last year. The navy department, it is announced, will ask for two millions less, and similar savings will be effected in other departments. This saving is in the estimates alone, and by the time the appropriations committee gets through with its pruning work the probabilities are that the saving will be still further increased, while the efficiency of the government business will not be decreased in the slightest degree. The Democrats, in short, are out to make a record as business men.

The Next Five Weeks.

If the people want the direct primaries system, the people will get it. But in order to get it they will have to make it powerful clear that they want it, says the Louisville Times. In other words the enactment of a direct primaries law depends upon the pressure brought to bear by public opinion.

The Democratic platform contains a strong direct primaries plank; the party leaders in the recent campaign emphatically and repeatedly declared their all-giance to the principles for which it stands. The majority given the Democratic ticket and platform is conclusive proof that it is the will of the people that the system should be established in Kentucky. But experience which legislative bodies teaches that something more than this is needed if the end desired is to be reached.

Under the present system of conventions and party primaries, the power to nominate is in the hands of a few men; reasonable expectation of successful candidacy is confined to a limited class. Such power will not be easily surrendered. It is not probable that a direct primaries measure will encounter much in the way of open opposition. That there will be men in the General Assembly more desirous of its defeat than the defeat of any other measure that can be introduced, is not open to doubt. More measures are defeated by secret opposition than are killed on the floor of Legislative Assemblies.

The time before the opening of the legislative session is short. If the people are to realize from that session what has been promised them, the people and the press must drive home to every member of the General Assembly before the first Tuesday after the first Monday in January the fact that they know what they want, that they intend to get it or failing that, to exact an accounting.

The next five weeks will have as much to do with determining whether Kentucky is to have popular government, as will the legislative session itself. At present the duty to be performed rests with the press and the people of Kentucky. If it is not performed, there will be no cause for quarrel if the General Assembly in turn fails to do its duty.

THINK THIS OVER.

This Offer Should Gain the Confidence of the Most Skeptical.

We pay for all the medicine used during the trial if our remedy fails to completely relieve you of constipation. We take all the risk. You are not obligated to us in any way whatever, if you accept our offer. That's a mighty broad statement, but we mean every word of it. Could anything be more fair for you.

A most scientific, common sense treatment is Rexall Orderlies, which are eaten like candy. Their active principle is a recent scientific discovery that is odorless, colorless and tasteless; very pronounced, gentle and pleasant in action, and particularly agreeable in every way. This ingredient does not cause diarrhoea, nausea, flatulence, griping or other inconvenience. Rexall Orderlies are particularly good for children, aged and delicate persons.

If you suffer from chronic or habitual constipation, or the associate or dependent chronic ailments, we urge you to try Rexall Orderlies at our risk. Remember, you can get them in Paris, only at our store, 12 tablets, 10 cents; 36 tablets, 25 cents; 80 tablets, 50 cents. Sold only at our store—The Rexall Store, G. S. Varden & Son.

Wins Fight for Life.

It was a long and bloody battle for life that was waged by J. B. Merriam of Newark, N. J., of which he writes "I had lost much blood from lung hemorrhages and was very weak and run down. For eight months I was unable to work. Death seemed to close on my heels, when I began three weeks ago to use Dr. King's New Discovery. But it has helped me greatly. It is doing all that you claim." For weak, sore lungs, obstinate coughs, asthmatic colds, hoarseness, lagrippe, asthma, hay fever or any throat or lung trouble its supreme 50c and $1. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Oberdorfer.

Patriotism

The stomach is a larger factor in "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness" than most people are aware. Patriotism can withstand hunger but not dyspepsia. The confirmed dyspeptic "is fit for treason, stratagems and spoils." The man who goes to the front for his country with a weak stomach will be a weak soldier and a fault finder.

DEATH.

—Mrs. Janie Rankin Strouse, aged 28 years, died at the Harrison County Hospital in Cynthiana Wednesday morning at 5 o'clock after a long illness from tuberculosis. Mrs. Strouse was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Berry Rankin, of Berry, Ky.

She is survived by her husband, Mr. Eli Strouse, and a little son, aged about two years, of Lair, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Berry Rankin, and one sister, Mrs. Ewalt Haley, of Bourbon, and eight brothers, Messrs. Samuel Rankin of Oklahoma; Thomas J. and Elzie Rankin, of Ohio; Jas. M. Rankin, of Lexington; W. A. Rankin, Dr. Geo. L. Rankin, Robert Rankin and Grover Rankin.

The funeral services were conducted at the Christian church in Cynthiana Thursday afternoon by Elder J. R. Jones, and the burial took place in the Battle Grove cemetery. Six brothers of Mrs. Strouse acted as pall-bearers.

Mrs. Bessie Burris Hopkins died Friday morning at 5 o'clock at her home near Little Rock. Mrs. Hopkins was about 26 years of age, and was ill only a brief while of uremic poison. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Burris, and a graduate of Bourbon College. Besides her husband, Mr. Charles Hopkins, she is survived by her parents, three sisters and two brothers; Mrs. Irene Clark and Misses Sidney and Amie Burris, and Messrs. Finley and Chas. Burris, all of Bourbon county.

The funeral was held at the residence at 1 o'clock Saturday afternoon conducted by Elder E. W. Koch, and the burial took place at the North Middletown cemetery.

—A telegram received yesterday announced the sudden death of Mrs. I. F. Garrison, which occurred at her home in Los Angeles, Cal., on Saturday afternoon at four o'clock. His death was due to heart trouble from which he had been suffering for several years.

Mrs. Garrison formerly resided in this city and about a year ago moved to California where it was hoped the change of climate and other conditions would benefit her health.

She is survived by her husband and one son, Buford Garrison, of Los Angeles, Cal., one sister, Mrs. Tilford Burnett, of this county and one brother, Mr. Geo. M. Rose, of Paris. The remains will be brought to this city for burial and will arrive here the latter part of the week.

Fiscal Court Meeting.

The Bourbon Fiscal Court will meet in regular monthly session Thursday, December 7.

Bank Stock Sold.

Auctioneer Geo. D. Speakes sold yesterday at public auction at the court house door thirty shares of Bourbon Bank stock at prices ranging from $210 to $213 per share.

Circuit Court.

Progress in the Circuit Court has been rather slow for the past few days following the Thanksgiving holiday and only a few cases of minor importance have been disposed of during that time.

The grand jury which adjourned Saturday will resume deliberations this morning upon the convening of court. Before taking its adjournment and following the instruction of the court the grand jury investigated the charges of those confined in the county jail and returned ten indictments, two of which are withheld until service is made. Those reported to the court are as follows: Will McCoy, murder; Woodson Martin, murder; Will Henderson, malicious shooting; Walter Johnson, malicious shooting; Loss Holdman, grand larceny; Harry Barton, grand larceny; Charles Darnell, striking and wounding with a deadly weapon; Dan Elite, striking and wounding with a deadly weapon. The Commonwealth docket brought from the last term of court, practically all the cases having been disposed of, the civil docket will be taken up when court convenes this morning, the first assigned for trial being that of the administrator of Calvin Elam against the Paris Gas & Electric Co., and the Bourbon Home Telephone Co.

The case is a damage suit growing out of the death of Elam, who it is alleged was knocked from a telephone pole while in the discharge of his duties as lineman in the employ of the Home Telephone Co., by coming in contact with an electric light wire. The suit is for the sum of $25,000 damages alleged to have been sustained through the death of Elam.

Accused Execute Bond.

A dispatch from Carlisle yesterday was as follows: "John Hoard and Joe Scott, of Nicholas county and Frank Crocuh and Dawse Terrell, of Bourbon county, prominent farmers against whom W. H. (Sonny) Scott and Mrs. Mary Honaker, of Nicholas county, recently swore out a warrant charging and alleging that the defendants banded themselves together on the night of October 28 and whipped them, came here before Justice James T. Clay and executed bond in the sum of $350 for their appearance for examining trial, which has been set for Thursday, December 7.

"John Beatus, a prominent farmer of Bourbon county, who is also made a defendant in the warrant, will appear here this week, it is said, and execute bond. The defendants deny the charge and say they will prove an alibi.

"It is declared that on the night of the alleged whipping that W. H. Scott was at the home of Mrs. Honaker, who lives on his farm and they claim that they were whipped with a switch about the size of a buggy whip and a leather strap.

"Joe, John and Hoard Scott are sons and Frank Crocuh is a son-in-law of the prosecuting witness, W. H. Scott. All of the defendants in the warrant are prominent farmers."

Police Court.

Campbell Rice, colored, an ex-convict, after being released from the penitentiary, was enroute to his home in Carlisle, but when he arrived in Paris Saturday afternoon and while waiting for his train imbibed freely and created some excitement at the depot. He was taken in custody by Patrolman Thomas and in Police Court was fined $12.50 and given ten days in jail. When taken into custody Rice had in his possession two bottles of whisky. Other cases disposed of by Judge January were as follows: Clay Laughlin, drunk and disorderly, $12.50.

James Stapleton, drunk, $7.50.
Henry Williams turning in false fire alarm $7.50.

McNamara Pleads Guilty.

James B. McNamara pleaded guilty Friday at Los Angeles, Cal., to having placed a dynamite bomb under the Los Angeles Times in October, 1910, which caused the death of twenty-one persons; John J. McNamara, Secretary-Treasurer of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Ironworkers, did not enter a plea to the indictment similarly entered against him for the Times Explosion, but pleaded guilty to the charge of having caused the explosion of the Llewellyn iron works, in which no fatalities occurred.

Pains All Over!

"You are welcome," says Mrs. Nora Guffey, of Broken Arrow, Okla., "to use my letter—in any way you want to, if it will induce some suffering woman to try Cardui. I had pains all over, and suffered with an abscess. Three physicians failed to relieve me. Since taking Cardui, I am in better health than ever before, and that means much to me, because I suffered many years with womanly troubles, of different kinds. What other treatments I tried, helped me for a few days only."

TAKE The CARDUI Woman's Tonic

Don't wait, until you are taken down sick, before taking care of yourself. The small aches and pains, and other symptoms of womanly weakness and disease, always mean worse to follow, unless given quick treatment.

You would always keep Cardui handy, if you knew what quick and permanent relief it gives, where weakness and disease of the womanly system makes life seem hard to bear. Cardui has helped over a million women. Try it.

Ordered Modest Inscription.

Wesley ordered that this inscription, if any, should be placed upon his tombstone: "Here lieth the body of John Wesley, a brand plucked out of the burning, who died of consumption in the fifty-first year of his age, and leaving, after his debts are paid, ten pounds behind him; praying, God be merciful to me an unprofitable servant."

Sickly School Children.

A physical examination of 3,219 school children in three counties in Georgia showed 2,228 of them suffering from one disease or another. Most of the diseases were such as adenoids, hookworm, defective eyesight, hearing and teeth. Is the time not coming when in the public schools as much attention will be paid to the physical condition of the children as to anything else? Should it not be done?—Knoxville Journal and Tribune.

For Boarding School.

Napkin rings of hand beaten silver are designed especially for the use of boys and girls at boarding school. They are in an oval shape, about three and a half inches being the largest diameter, and the child's initials will be added for a consideration. The same rings are also sold for holding the baby's bib.

CATARH!

Cured by the Marvel of the Century, B. B. B.—Tested for 30 Years.

Hawking, spitting, foul breath, discharges of yellow matter permanently cured with pure botanical ingredients. To prove it we will send you a SAMPLE TREATMENT FREE. Catarrh is not only dangerous but it causes ulcerations, death and decay of bones, kills ambition, often causes loss of appetite, and reaches to general debility, idiosyncrasy and insanity. It needs attention at once. Cure it by taking Botanic Blood Balm (B. B. B.). It is a quick, radical, permanent cure because it rids the system of the poison germs that cause catarrh. At the same time Blood Balm (B. B. B.) purifies the blood, does away with every symptom of catarrh. B. B. B. sends a tingling flood of warm, rich, pure blood direct to the paralyzed nerves, and parts affected by catarrhal poison, giving warmth and strength just where it is needed, and in this way making a perfect, lasting cure of catarrh in all its forms. Drugists or by express, $1 per large bottle, with directions for home cure. Samples sent free by writing Blood Balm Co., Atlanta, Ga. Describe your trouble and free medical advice given. For he's a jolly good fellow Which nobody can deny

At the Dinner.

Last Christmas a certain minister was invited to a big dinner at the house of one of the leading men in the town. At the dinner table he was placed opposite a goose.

The lady of the house was placed on the minister's left. Seeing the goose he remarked:

"Shall I sit so close to the goose?" Finding his words a bit equivocal, he turned round to the lady, and said, in a most inoffensive tone:

"Excuse me, my lady; I meant the roast one."

A Convenient Myth.

"Why do you still keep up that absurd Santa Claus myth?" asked the cynic. "I should have thought you would have laughed at it."

"Because," answered the man with a large family, "it is convenient to have some one to blame for presents that fail to please."

OPPORTUNE.

George—Ah, Lily, dear, this will be the jolliest Christmas I've ever spent. Now that we're engaged I think only of the future.

Lily—Do you? Well, at this time of the year I think only of the present.

Christmas Thanks.

When Turkey's on the table laid, And good things I may scan, I'm thankful that I wasn't made A vegetarian.

Trouble and a Turkey.

Brown was boasting of the fine turkey he had bought for Christmas. "Biggest bird I ever saw; cost me seven-fifty."

"That's nothing to the turkey I had last Christmas," said his friend Jones. "It cost me $150."

"One hundred and fifty dollars!" positively shrieked Brown, in his incredulity.

"Yes," said Jones, bitterly.

"Turkeys," said Brown, looking him straight in the eye, "are generally to be bought for a quarter a pound. Say yours was a quarter, then it must have weighed about 60 pounds!"

"It only weighed twenty pounds," said Jones, sadly, "but I bought it alive and tried to kill it myself. It flew all over the house first and did $150 worth of damage."

THE FIRST PRESENTS.

The giving of Christmas presents was first introduced by the early Romans. They exchanged gifts freely, but in compliance with a sumptuary law they were never allowed to give anything very elaborate. The receiver of a present which was judged too expensive had to offer it up for auction, when it was knocked down to the highest bidder, and the money appropriated by the national treasurer of the period. Consequently, although the Romans continued to distribute their presents in great numbers, they had to confine their offerings to such trifles as jars of olives, napkins, jelly, fishes, boxes of toothpicks, candles, cloaks and sweetmeats.

A Clean Sweep.

Caroline—I've been in the stores all day.

Pauline—So soon after Christmas, and still shopping?

Caroline—Shopping! I guess not. I'm exchanging all my presents.

Cackling.

Mrs. Gramercy—She must have been surprised when her husband gave her such an expensive present for Christmas.

Mrs. Park—Not surprised, my dear, but suspicious.

Poor Man.

Mrs. Caller—You surely don't give your husband a necktie every Christmas?

Mrs. Athome—Oh, yes, I do! And the poor dear never seems to know that it is the same one!

THE LATEST FAD.

Mr. I. M. P. Cunnis—Just sprinkle a bit of gasoline on me and I'll be ready to go out.

The Locality of Chicago.

A travelling salesman out of Chicago was in Lexington, Ky., recently and had to talk over the telephone to one of his customers in a neighboring town. When he had completed the conversation he asked the demure little operator how much the charges were, and she replied: "Thirty cents." At this the C. T. S. irately declared that in Chicago one could talk to hell and back for 30 cents.

The operator quietly replied: "Yes, but this is a long-distance call."—Everybody's Magazine.

Lead to Fall of Man.

A Brooklyn magistrate has decided that cucumbers are fruit. If they would grow on a tree this would establish a workable theory that they accomplished the fall of man. They have frequently done so since.

Dog Alpinist.

A bulldog called Bobby, belonging to the Marquis de Charette of Paris, is the first dog to gain mountaineering fame by ascending the summit of the Jungfrau. He was accompanied by master and mistress and two guides.—Berne Correspondence London Daily News.

Havoc Wrought by Beast Creation.

Even in thickly peopled communities man has not yet subdued the beast creation. In India last year wild animals and poisonous serpents killed 25,000 persons. The number of cattle killed by the denizens of the jungles was 93,000. The natives, in turn, slew something over 100,000 elephants, tigers, leopards, bears, wolves, hyenas and other animals, including 91,000 snakes.

Magnetic Influence.

People with magnetic bodies are not unknown and six years ago doctors discovered at Vladikavkaz, in the Caucasus, in girl of twelve, whose body was practically a magnet. According to a medico who examined her, every object which she approached would move. Once she walked close to a kitchen dresser, and in an instant the crockery upon it began to dance. On another occasion a heavy bottle standing upon a table was raised in the air when the magnetic maiden went near it.

Busy Making Out Bills.

What has become of the round and robust kind of hotel manager who used to curl the ends of his mustache and wear a white vest all the year round?—Syracuse Post-Standard.

Democracy and Wealth.

Anatole France said that "in every well-ordered state wealth is a sacred thing." But he added, "in a democracy it is the only sacred thing."

No More Worry.

"Party that lost purse containing twenty dollars need worry no longer—it has been found."

HAD A SWEET TOOTH.

The Saleslady (applicant for position)—I'll take the place in the candy department.

Manager of Department Store—But it pays a dollar less than the position in the ribbon department.

The Saleslady—I know, but it's worth the difference.

Appeal for Native Talent.

A New York hotel man, who has just returned home after scouring Europe for cooks, complains that they are a scarce commodity abroad. The condition is one for which hotel men themselves are largely to blame. Why don't they encourage native talent in the cooking line instead of filling their kitchens with foreigners?—Rochester Democrat and Chronicle.

Wesley's Cup Filled.

On one occasion Wesley said, while preaching in Dublin: "All crimes have been laid to my charge of which a human being is capable, except that of drunkenness." Whereupon a woman arose and shouted: "You old villain! And will you deny that you pledged your hands to Mrs. Blank for a noggin o' whiskey, and didn't she sell them to our parson's wife?" After a moment of amazed silence on the part of the audience, Wesley calmly "thanked God that his cup was now full."

Lightning's Strange Freaks.

Lightning has imprinted pictures on tree trunks and dried leaves, and it is asserted that the silhouette of a man killed by lightning was fixed on a whitewashed wall near the spot where he was killed. What are the secrets of lightning by which it is able to do these things?

Indian Aristocracy.

Among the guests at an Indian dance were Mr. and Mrs. Walsingham Kick-a-hole-in-the-Teepee, Misses Gwendolyn and Cleopatra Buffalo-Fat, Miss Hayzelle Saw-the-Bear-Go-Into-a-Hole and her brother, Algernon, and Charley Fell-Off-the-Bridge, and his sisters, Claudia and Penelope.—Washington Post.

X-mas Values IN GOOD FURNITURE!

Always Something New to Show You

We would be glad to have house-keepers drop in on us any day just to look around.

Hardly a day passes but we add something to our stock.

The factories are busy at turning out new things, and of course we get our share.

The other day we received a consignment of RUGS, the most attractive, we think, we ever saw, new in design, beautiful in finish, and sturdy and long-lasting.

Any home that is in need of one of these ought to get supplied now. Prices $10 up, and worth it.

How You Sleep

Depends quite a bit upon what you sleep on. Ideas about mattresses have changed in recent years, and mattresses have changed to suit.

Now you find some mattresses have names, which doesn't hurt them a bit, but you can also find loads of good mattresses without names.

We have both.

We have them every size and weight and quality.

Every mattress is carefully made along hygienic lines, and is worth every cent we ask for it.

We invite you.

An ad about Iron Bedssteads

There's a lot to tell you about them, more, we are afraid, than we will have room for.

But let's begin by saying that we have a nice large selection to show you.

They are heavily enameled, all sizes.

Most of them have attractive ornamentation.

The best ones cost the most, of course, but you can get a bed good enough for anybody, full size, at little cost.

But you had better first let us show you just what our line is like. Then you can quickly make a selection.

Good Furniture Values

Depend firstly and mostly on good Furniture.

There's more likelihood of your paying too little than too much.

If you look at the Furniture question right, you'll decide to spend enough to get all the value that there is going.

If you will let us, we can show you just why our Furniture is worth your attention and your money.

Can let you see for yourself the points where it excels.

Because it DOES excel—there is no doubt in the world about that.

Make Somebody Happy With a KODAK

Home memories that are cherished most are those of the great home day—Christmas. Better than mere memory, though, is the pictured story of the family reunion, the happy children, the gay young folks, the grown-up boys and girls back home again. The pictures taken with the Christmas Kodak will give pleasure the whole year round and for all the years to come.

Let us show you the simple Kodak way which makes picture-taking so much fun. We have Kodaks at $5.00, others up to $65.00.

One Solace Left.
The president of an eastern college is authority for the statement that the average salary of college professors throughout this country is less than the average wages of the drivers of ice wagons. It is to be hoped that the privilege of mentioning one's compensation as "salary" instead of "wages" is adequate solace to the pedagogic mind.

Lightning Seemingly at Play.
That the gambols of electricity are most fearful and wonderful was illustrated in the month of June, 1873, when, according to Flammarion, the electric current entered a butcher's shop and followed the iron bars from which the quarters of meat were hung until it reached a hook on which the skinned carcass of a whole ox was suspended. This was galvanized, and for several seconds it was frightfully contorted as if in convulsions.

Simple Test.
An infallible test of tinned fruit or vegetables of any kind is to open the tin and plunge into the contents a bright steel knife. Keep it there for a few minutes and if copper is present, even in the minutest proportions, it will be visibly deposited on the blade.

To Get Rid of Snails.
A friend whose large garden was being overrun with snails wrote to the bureau of agriculture at Washington for a remedy. She was told to put large pieces of cut raw potato on the under side of a board, raised at one end, a few inches from the ground. This she did, with the result that in one week a thousand snails had collected in that one spot.

Permanent Institution.
We are getting the information from Paris right along now that the corset is going to be abandoned the coming season. Every few years something of this kind is given out, but it doesn't appear to affect the corset. Paris can do almost anything with the fashions, but it has never yet been able to put the corset out of business.

An Ideal.
I will strive to raise my own body and soul daily into higher powers of duty and happiness; not in rivalry or contention with others, but for the help, delight, honor of others, and for the joy and peace of my own life.
—John Ruskin.

Watch the Trifles.
Grasp the trifling affairs of ordinary daily life if you want to do good—don't wait for any special opportunity.

New Council Ushered Into Office

The Board of Council of the city of Paris, chosen at the regular election in November was ushered into office at a special meeting of that body held in the city hall last evening and the board before adjournment appointed the officers to serve the ensuing two years.

The oath of office was administered by City Attorney C. A. McMillan to Councilmen Walker, Brooks and Speakes from the First Ward; Parrish, Kenney and Hinton from the Second Ward. The outgoing members of the Board whose term expired last night were J. B. Dempsey, L. Wollstein from the First Ward, and C. E. Butler from the Second Ward.

After receiving the oath of office the body got down to business and after passing an ordinance fixing the salaries of the various officials within the appointive power of the board selected the officers for those positions.

Councilman Parrish offered an amendment to the motion to fix the salary of the City Attorney at $500, which was voted down, and his amendment to the motion to reduce the amount allowed the City Assessor on each list of assessment to 12 1-2 cents met with a similar fate.

The ordinance passed by the Board provided for one extra policeman, created the office of Inspector of Weights and measures, one extra fireman, and combined the offices of the City Collector and City Treasurer.

Patrolman Ben Bishop, who has done police service for a number of years, was succeeded by James Moreland, and Clarence Thomas, cashier of the Deposit Bank, was elected City Treasurer and Collector over James McClure. The officers selected were as follows:

City Clerk—J. W. Hayden.
City Attorney—C. A. McMillan.
Patrolmen—Chas. B. Thomas, Fred Link, James Moreland and G. N. McKenney.

Street Superintendent—John Cain.
Driver of Hose Wagon—Henry McGinley.

City Electrician—Howard Lancaster.
Fireman—John King.
City Lamplighter—Thomas Taul.

Inspector of Weights and Measures—M. F. Kenney.
City Assessor—L. D. Harris.

City Collector and Treasurer—Clarence Thomas.

SPELL OF TRAGEDY HANGS OVER HOME

Scene of Fatal Duel Between Brothers Long Noted for Deeds of Blood.

BENEATH AN EVIL STAR

Accidents Costing Several Lives Have Recently Been Followed by a Mortal Combat That Still Remains a Mystery.

Bloomersburg, Pa.—The spell of tragedy hangs over the Peterman home in Sugarloaf township, where, only a few days ago, there was fought the duel that resulted in the death of one Peterman brother and the wounding of the other, who is recovering and will be tried for murder.

Since the hour when the news of the terrible affair at the Peterman farm became circulated over the quiet countryside the history of the Peterman homestead, with its tragedies, began to be recited over and over.

Fifteen years ago, when the Peterman family was augmented by the marriage of John Peterman to a widow of the Sugarloaf district and the bringing of her three children under the Peterman roof tree, the family was one of the happiest of that picturesque section. One day Mrs. Peterman was boiling soft soap in a large kettle that swung from a crane in the old log-house. It was a ponderous cauldron, holding many gallons of the grease from the annual hog butchering, and the soap was to be of such quantity that it would answer the household all winter.

Somehow—just how nobody seemed to know—one of the widow's children, in playing about the blazing fire, knocked the boiling kettle from its fastening, and the mass of sizzling grease spilled over, and not only that particular child, but the two other children of the woman, scalding all so badly that they died in a few hours.

The tragedy so appalled the mother that for a long time it was feared she would lose her mind, and for a long time the old loghouse was shut up, not even used as a storehouse, the memory of the kettle tragedy being so poignant that the place was abandoned. Today it stands as a link between the hideous past and the more hideous present.

One day a few years after the terrible wiping out of Mrs. Peterman's little ones, her husband was at work in the fields not 200 yards from the house. A high wind, an accompaniment to a terrific storm, swept over the countryside, and just when Peterman was passing at a distance in which the limbs of the monarch caught and plumed him to the ground, a ponderous tree on the knoll was blown over and Farmer Peterman was killed. His grave was added to the row of little graves in the Sugarloaf cemetery, and alongside that of the first wife.

Always the history of the Peterman farm was referred to in tones of sadness, and the place grew to be associated with the community in sort of a weird way. But the capesheet of its tragic history was that enacted somewhere in the house or out of it, with knife and a stone and fist, in the darkness the other night between the two brothers, who were equally interested in the property.

There were two-score knife wounds in the body of Abram Peterman when the undertaker came to lay out his body for burial, and the face and head were battered in as though done with a stone. His body had been found at the foot of a wall, or over-shot, near the Peterman farmhouse, and in the latter the brother, John, himself terribly wounded as though he had been attacked by a veritable madman, was found in a semi-unconscious condition. He acknowledged having slain his brother, but declared that if he had not killed Abram he himself would have forfeited his life.

ONE WAY OF SAVING A BABY—FREE TO TRY

The mother does not live who would not do all in her power to keep her child healthy, but often she does not know how. So when a doctor of standing points the way all can afford to listen.

It is an accepted fact that nine out of ten of the troubles of infants and children is intestinal. You notice it by the fact that the child is constipated, it belches, is peevish and cries. Don't give a remedy that contains an opiate, because the child will get in the habit of needing it, and don't become alarmed and run at once for a doctor.

Try a scientific laxative first. Give a small dose of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, the remedy that is intended for the use of children. It is mild, gentle and non-gripping. The remedy is absolutely pure and is guaranteed in every particular. Mrs. Toomey of Emingsville, Pa., and Mrs. Fred Crows of Alanson, Mich., never give their children anything else. These are only a few among thousands of women.

You can buy a fifty cent or one dollar bottle of any nearby druggist, for they have all sold it for a generation, but if you want to test it on your child first send your address to Dr. Caldwell and he will cheerfully send you a free sample bottle.

Address him Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 402 Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.

The Famous Rayo Lamp

The Rayo Lamp is the best and most serviceable lamp you can find for any part of your home.

It is in use in millions of families. Its strong white light has made it famous. And it never flickers.

In the dining-room or the parlor the Rayo gives just the light that is most effective. It is a becoming lamp—in itself and to you. Just the lamp, too, for bedroom or library, where a clear, steady light is needed.

The Rayo is made of solid brass, nickel-plated, also in numerous other styles and finishes. Easily lighted without removing shade or chimney; easy to clean and rewick.

Ask your dealer to show you his line of Rayo lamps; or write for descriptive circular to any agency of the Melancholy Days.

There are no melancholy days if we keep in tune with the bright and interesting things of life. The secret lies in being alive to what is going on about us. Don't miss the things that are worth while. This bit of philosophy applies to our advertisements. Don't let them go by, unheeded. They may be the means of adding to the sum total of your happiness.

Ill-Fitting Shoes to Blame.

The cause of many broken insteps comes from imperfectly fitted shoes. When fitting, if there is too much space left in the toe of the shoe there is no doubt about it that as soon as the shoe is worn for a short time the heel will begin to chafe and cause the wearer much annoyance that could be well dispensed with, if the clerk is given enough time to fit the foot right. The ball of the foot should be at the curve of the sole.

Ready for the Summons.

"Suppose you knew you were to die tonight at 12 o'clock," asked a lady of Wesley, "how would you spend the intervening time?" "How, madam?" he replied. "Why, just as I intend to spend it now. I should go through with my business, go to my room and to sleep at 10 o'clock, and wake up in glory."

Get the Habit.

Telling the truth may become a matter of habit.

Influence of Clothes.

Clothes have a most surprising influence on the mind. If you don't believe it, some day when you are tired, or perhaps blue, or even cross, take a bath, put on something dainty fresh from top to toe, and your best go-to-meeting gown, and you'll feel as if a fairy wand had suddenly touched you with some wonderful, transforming power. You'll find yourself looking at the world through a rosy mist, instead of clouds of dull gray. It will be easy to smile.—Suburban Life.

Women and Love Letters.

It is one of the settled facts in the history of love letters that men will write and women will keep. A woman cherishes her love letters as she cherishes her mirror or her powder puff. She kisses them before she goes to bed, and presses them to her bosom before she does her hair up in the morning. She reads them for weeks and knows where to find them for years; and about the only safe thing the man who has written them can do is to marry her.

A Many-Horned Cow.

A cow with 17 horns is the interesting monstrosity reported by a traveler from the south. The horns, we are told, protrude from the cow's back, each one resting on a joint in the spinal column. The farmer who owns the horned wonder is proud of her. She is proud of her gift, and out of thankfulness for her distinction produces more milk than any other cow on the farm.—Detroit Free Press.

Waterproof Glue.

To make an impermeable glue, soak ordinary glue in water until it softens, and remove it before it has lost its primitive form. After this dissolve it in linseed oil over a slow fire until it is brought to the consistency of a jelly. This glue may be used for joining any kind of material. In addition to strength and hardness, it has the advantage of resisting the action of water.

Wedding Ring Lightning's Mark.

During a violent thunderstorm at Berwick, England, an extraordinary incident occurred. Mrs. Mason of Castlegate was in bed with her hand resting on the counterpane when a flash of lightning entered and struck her wedding ring, taking a small piece clean out of it. Her hand was uninjured.

Sweet Things of Life.

Life's sweet, brother—there's day and night, brother, both sweet things; sun, moon and stars all sweet things; there's likewise a wind on the heath.—George Borrow in Lavengro.

The Deepest Hole.

The deepest hole in the world up to date is the boring begun ten years ago at Czuchow, Silesia, with the object of attaining a depth of 2,550 metres, and which has now reached a depth of 2,240 metres (7,349 feet). The bore is 44 centimetres (17 inches) in diameter at the top and diminishes progressively to nine centimetres.

Nature's Law.

The law of nature is, that a certain quantity of work is necessary to produce a certain quantity of good of any kind whatever. If you want knowledge, you must toil for it; if food, you must toil for it; and if pleasure, you must toil for it.—Ruskin.

Crab Industry in Japan.

Less than three years ago Japan began to can crab meat for export. Now there are over a hundred canneries, and last year the output was 2,160,000 cans.

Confiding World.

That this is a confiding world is still proved by the sale of hair restoratives by bald-headed men, and the peddling of books on "How to Be Rich" by youthful paddlers working at $2 a day.

Gold lace and embroidery can be cleaned with powdered burnt alum, applied with a soft brush and wiped off with a soft cloth.

Comforting to Maud.

Maud—"Did Alice say anything about me during her call yesterday?" Ethel—"Oh, no; she's a nice girl, Alice. If she can't speak well of any one she says nothing at all."

A Natural Question.

"Hubby, I'm going in for the simple life a while." "All right, my dear," said Hubby, as he reached for his check book. "How many gowns will that require?"

An Absolutely Free Show.

Aviation is the small boy's delight. He can sit on a fence and watch the show for nothing; nor does he have to carry water for the elephant.

About Twenty Per Cent.

It is said that the people of Chicago consume 40,000,000 pigs' feet every year. Perhaps that accounts for a whole lot of Chicago's peculiarities.

Words Modernized.

The thimble was originally known as a thumb bell. "Variat" is the same word as "valet" and each is an offshoot of the feudal "vassal."

—A marriage license was issued Saturday to Mr. Henry Towles and Miss Matilda Martin.

MILLERSBURG ITEMS.

Mrs. M. E. Martin continues about the same.

Messdames Chas. Leer and J. C. Leer were in Lexington last Tuesday.

Messrs. D. E. Clarke and Jesse Wilson were hunting at Myers Station, Thanksgiving day.

Mr. J. H. Stewart was taken by Dr. W. M. Miller to St. Joseph Hospital, Lexington, Saturday, Mrs. Stewart accompanying him.

The following are among the number who were out of town during the Thanksgiving holidays: Capts. Freas and Daugherty, of M. M. I., at Cincinnati; Misses Ethel Johnson, Louise Cray, with Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Current, Lexington; Miss Louise Myall, with her cousin, Miss Edith Myall, Paris; Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Johnson with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Chambers, Sardis; Miss Ruth Stirman and Capt. S. E. Brown, the latter of M. M. I., with Miss Clara Rhodes, of Elizaville; Miss Maria Smith, with relatives at Paris.

The cadets of M. M. I. are working hard on "Rube and His Ma." It is a rural drama in three acts and will be put on Friday evening at M. M. I. drill hall. It promises to be one of the best pieces ever given under the management of Mrs. Best and her work is always excellent. The cast is strong and the cadets are assisted by Misses Ruth McClintock, Martha Smith and Louise Myall. Cadet Miller as "Rube," and Miss McClintock as "His Ma," are especially strong. A good musical program has been arranged to be put on between acts. Seats went on sale Saturday and are selling well. All persons who have not secured their seats had better engage them early as they will all probably be taken before Friday night.

The Thanksgiving services were held Thursday morning at the Christian church. The sermon was preached by Rev. W. A. Swift pastor of the Methodist church. His sermon was somewhat a departure from the average Thanksgiving discourse. After talking on the possibilities of this country, its great resources, its vast accumulated wealth and how easy it was for people to live here and how well they lived when compared with other countries, he launched out on a missionary phase. There is being expended annually in this country $25,000,000 for missionary work. This sum is small in comparison to what is being spent for other things. There is being spent for millinery annually $20,000,000, for jewelry and plate work $700,000,000, for tobacco $750,000,000, while for intoxicating drinks the sum is stupendously large. He then showed how much good was being done with the little $25,000,000 for missionary work and said that Christianity had made greater progress in the last hundred years than it had from the days of Christ up to that time. His sermon was good and everyone was well pleased. The musical program was especially good.

Mr. G. S. Allen left Saturday for a visit to relatives at Augusta.

Mr. F. Hurst has returned from a visit to relatives in Elizaville.

Mr. R. L. Buffington, of Cincinnati, is the guest of Dr. W. M. Miller.

The ladies of the Baptist church will give their bazaar Friday and Saturday.

Miss Elizabeth Taylor will give a linen shower for Miss Louise Cray Friday.

Mr. C. D. Tackett returned Wednesday after a three weeks hunt in Bath county.

Mr. Evans, of Sardis, was the guest last week of his sister, Mrs. G. W. Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Clarke leave today for Florida where they will spend the winter.

Mr. Frank Caldwell arrived Sunday from Alberta Province, Can., with a car of household goods.

Miss Francis Burroughs gave a candy pulling to a number of her friends Thanksgiving night.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church are holding their bazaar in the basement of the church today.

Mrs. Harvey Thorne and family will occupy the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Clarke during their absence in Florida.

Mrs. Margaret Howard, who sustained several severe burns at the home of her son, Mr. C. W. Howard, in Lexington, is improving nicely.

The following are among the number who spent the Thanksgiving holidays with friends here: Miss Mary McDaniel, Leesburg, with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. McDaniel; Miss Bessie Purnell, Paris, with her mother, Mrs. Mattie Purnell; Miss Vallette McClintock and little brothers, Thomas and James, of Paris, with relatives here; Mr. Claude Neal and family, Newport, with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Neal; Mr. and Mrs. Valldingham, Barboursville, Va., with relatives; Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Swinford, Carlisle, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Shroot, Owensville, with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Carpenter; Mrs. C. F. Maurer, Lexington, with Mrs. C. B. Smith; Mrs. Sallie Cunningham, Lexington, with Mrs. R. E. Sanders; Miss Mabel Temple, Paris, with Mrs. E. B. Taylor; Mr. Chas. Fisher, Winchester, with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Fisher.

The many friends of Miss Mary E. Ivey will be shocked to learn of her death. Mrs. O. R. Rankin is in receipt of a letter which conveyed the sad intelligence that Miss Ivey died at the home of her brother at Bastrop, La. She was taken ill with pneumonia on November 5. Her niece, Miss Irma Ivey, whose wedding was noted in the columns of this paper, was married on the 25 at the bedside of her aunt. Miss Irma protested against the wedding taking place at this time but as all preliminaries had been arranged the dying aunt would not consent to the postponement. Miss Mary Ivey for several years was lady principal at M. F. C. and during the time her niece, Miss Irma, was a student in the institution. They both have a large circle of friends here who will regret to learn of Miss Ivey's demise. She was a superior woman with a well trained mind and a broad intellect, thoroughly accomplished and was at home with everybody both in and out of the school room.

Card from Dr. Trabue.

Editor News—In a recent issue of the News there appeared in the police court items a statement to the effect that I was fined in that court for provoking an assault, which is a fact. However, I desire to have you publish over my signature the exact cause of the difficulty which took place between Reynolds Letton and myself. Letton and I entered in an agreement for the sale of a jack and for the consummation of the deal for a certain sum I was to receive as commission. After several attempts to secure the money, which was due me, and without success I met Letton on the street in Paris and upon again being refused a settlement engaged in a heated argument which resulted in my arrest and subsequent punishment in police court. Trusting you will give these facts to the public I am

Very truly yours,

PUBLIC SALE

Of Desirable Bourbon Property.

On Tuesday, December 19, 1911, at 2 p. m., on the premises, I will sell at public outcry, to the highest and best bidder, my home place, situated on Cypress Street, in Paris, Ky., and containing eight acres of land with improvements.

The property will be offered in two tracts, then as a whole, and best bid accepted.

Tract No. 1—Contains four acres with improvements, consisting of a frame residence of five rooms, two porches, good cellar, splendid large cistern, meat house, hen house, stable, combined stock barn, buggy house, crib and loft. It has an excellent garden, young orchard, grape arbor and shade trees.

Tract No. 2—Contains four acres of unimproved land, adjoining tract No. 1, and fronting on Cypress street.

This property is well fenced, the improvements are all in good condition, being practically new, and the land is all rich, fertile and very productive.

This is a great opportunity for anyone desiring to purchase a small tract of good land that will produce anything that can be grown in this climate, and is especially adapted for a market garden.

Terms—One-third cash, balance in two equal payments, in one and two years, deferred notes, bearing interest at 6 per cent. per annum.
